Words of Passion, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.A small southern community isolated between two rivers in western Kentucky promises a new life for Chicago-born Nick Kincaid. He s about to realize his dream of becoming a teacher and to finally meet girls and have a social life, thus far hampered by living with his parents. But trouble starts to brew on the train when he s followed by a stranger with knowledge of his destination. Nick s difficulties heighten when he meets and later falls in love with a beautiful girl, only to have her leave for the holidays and not return, and when he learns he s settled in a small community that lives by a secret code outside the law, even when murder is involved. Despite Nick s training and goodhearted sincerity, all his careful plans start to unravel when a lady with good intentions tells a little white lie that threatens his teaching career, his first meaningful love affair, and his very life.
