KATIE AND SPIRIT WOLF: THE SPIRIT WORLD DOES EXIST (PAPERBACK)

Outskirts Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Lorraine Griffith better known as Grandmother Littlewolf has always had her feet part in the white mans world and part in the Native American spiritual world. She has traveled through out the US with her husband a Retired United States Marine with 30 years of military service behind him. During their travels she has come in contact with many Native American Indians of different tribal affiliations through the country. She has seen and talked to many shaman and others who have ventured into the spiritual world and who have been willing to share their knowledge with her. While seeking their help in her travels she has seen and heard many stories from her Indian people of the here and now and the spiritual aspects of the Native world. While growing up in the Bear Mountain and Danville, Virginia areas of Virginia she had the opportunity to see and observe first hand what the healing aspects of Indian life is like. Her mother Pauline and her grandmother Lottie Johns were both Monacan Indians, who spent many hours among their people helping them and keeping them well through spiritual prayers and Native herbs. They always knew when someone had died because the person who passed would appear before them and let them know that they had passed over to the Creators side. She had heard her mother talk to the spirits as if they were in the same room with her. Grand mother Littlewolf herself has seen and talked to those in the spirit world many times. she is a seer and has seen many things that has happened before they happened. Lorraine, has been in her time a...
