Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Notarial Manual for Consular Officers 1. A notary public is a public officer whose function is to attest and certify by his hand and official seal certain classes of documents in order to give them credit and authenticity in foreign jurisdictions; to take acknowledgments of deeds and other conveyances, and certify the same, and to perform certain official acts, chiefly in commercial matters, such as the protesting of notes and bills, the noting of foreign drafts, and marine protests in cases of loss or damage. 2. The office of notary public has long been known to the civil and common law. In the absence of a statute a notary public is unknown to the criminal law. 3. The principal function of a notary public is the authentication of documents. This power is used in specified cases for the perpetuation of facts as evidence. Notaries may also have the power to take affidavits, depositions, and acknowledgments, and to administer oaths. 4. The powers and duties of a notary public are derived in a large measure from general usage, public law, and the custom of merchants. To some degree they are regulated by statute in most of the States, but not usually in such a manner as to restrict the exercise of the functions which otherwise appertain to the office. As a general rule, a notary public may take acknowledgments of deeds, powers of attorney, agreements, leases, releases, assignments, bonds, mortgages, bills and contracts of sale, and protests, certify copies, and may take all forms of oaths, affidavits, and depositions. 5. Under the statutes of the United States, as well as under the laws of most...
