M. C. A. In the work undertaken by this Commission it was found that there was frequent duplication of effort and some fields of need were not touched at all. The method of investigation has been to get some one man in each state to list all agencies in that state working on Racial problems. The report is divided into a number of heads, as follows: 1. Educational. 2. Social and Economic. 3. Religious. 4. Special Work Undertaken by Typical Cities. 5. Work of the Young Men s Christian Association in Local Cities. 6. Statement of the Interracial Commission of the War Work Council. I. Educational. The Foundations working for the advancement of training among colored people are by far the finest example of team work and cooperation to be found in any field of work. The General Education Board is helping a few institutions of higher learning and furnishing funds for State Supervisors of Rural Negro Schools. The Slater Board is concentrating on...
