Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Methodology for Investigating Differences in Evaluation Criteria Among Industrial Buying Influences Industrial purchasing frequently involves several individuals with different backgrounds and job responsibilities. This paper develops methodology based on objective tests to assess differences in product evaluation criteria between categories of purchasing decision participants. It then determines the importance of these differences in the formation of individual preferences. Implementation of this methodology for purchase of an industrial air conditioning system is reviewed. The analysis leads to new insights in the development of marketing strategies for industrial products. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
