It is very little what I have still to say, and will not take much of your time. From the hills I went down into the plain to places I had often visited in former years. On my way to Kefr Saba (Antipatris?) I passed by Mejdal Taba (Mirabel), near which-- between it and Mezraah--I had many years ago discovered that ruin, which was afterwards visited and photographed by Captain Wilson (No. 110), to whom I had pointed it out as most remarkable. Robinson had been very near it--half a mile perhaps--but then struck into a more west road. As to Kefr Saba, I am quite sure now that it does not represent Antipatris, which must be looked out for between Kalat Ras el Ain...
