David Pryor (Chairman of the Committee) presiding. Present: Senators Pryor, Reid, Feingold, Cohen, Bums, and Riegle. Also present: Theresa Forster, staff director; Kenneth Cohen, investigator; Mary Berry Gerwin, minority staff director; Helen M. Albert, minority investigator; Chip Cannon, legislative fellow; and Allison LaRocca, legislative correspondent. Opening Statement Of Senator David Pryor, Chairman Senator Pryor. Good morning, ladies and gentlemen. The hearing will come to order at this time. We especially want to welcome all of you today. We want to welcome our guests who will serve on our two panels this morning. We have panel 1 all assembled here, ready for us. I want to take this opportunity to greet my colleague. Senator Bill Cohen of Maine. We have worked very closely on preparation of this hearing, as we have on all the hearings that we have chaired during the course of the 103d Congress. Senator Cohen is a delight to work with. He is committed to these issues, and I want to sincerely thank him at this time. This is truly one of those non-partisan committees of the U.S. Senate. If you questioned whether such a committee actually existed, it does exist in the Special Committee on Aging. I want to thank Senator Cohen. This morning we re going to be talking about Uninsured Bank Products: Risky Business for Seniors?, and it is a culmination of several months of investigation...
