Next we see him bursting like a shell this narrow confine, and soaring away to stately Edinburgh, throned on crags, to become there a principality and power among many, and to give stimulus and inspiration to hosts of young aspirants. What divine of the age, on the whole, can we name with Chalmers? Horsley was, perhaps, an abler man, but where the moral grandeur? Hall had the moral grandeur, and a far more cultivated mind; Foster had a sterner, loftier, and richer genius; but where, in either, the seraphic ardour, activity, and energy of Christian character possessed by Chalmers? Irving, as an orator, had more artistic skill, and, at the same time, his blood was warm with...
