Slants of Light: Stories and Poems from the Women's Writing Circle (Paperback)

By Susan G Weidener, Jodi Monster, Edda R Pitassi

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 211 x 142 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. This collection of stories and poems represents a unique and collective writing journey from a diverse group of women writers. The settings of their verses and narratives vary. From a moment's realization on the Ocean City, NJ boardwalk when a woman admits her marriage is over - to a Sunday afternoon's meditation on life's choices and missed opportunities - to the beauty in a passing snowflake - to a humorous instance of Internet dating while searching for one last chance at romance - this anthology will inspire, delight and amuse. KIRKUS REVIEW A collective of women writers lets its figurative hair down in these recollections, assertions of independence and examinations of family dynamics. Members of the Philadelphia-based Women's Writing Circle compile their stories, memories and poems in this tenderhearted, nostalgic anthology. Most of the pieces touch on the trials and joys of friendship, marriage and careers, and whether memoir or fiction, the stories all share an investment in exploring the authors most meaningful, significant relationships and articulating experiences they never before dared. Much of the book is racked...
