A FEW SECONDS OF RADIANT FILMSTRIP: A MEMOIR OF SEVENTH GRADE

Vintage, 2015. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: " Filmstrip is a funny, poignant oddity. . . . There's something here for you as long as you remember being 12, having disloyal friends, and wondering when the opposite sex was going to discover how cool you were. . . . The prose is always a pleasure, and our little underdog hero is so likable that you're relieved just to be holding the book in your hands: It's proof that he turned out okay. A-" -- Entertainment Weekly "Brockmeier's evocative, gracefully written memoir so beautifully captures a slice of our lives many may be tempted to write about, but few want to remember. . . . Brockmeier also does an excellent job anchoring his memoir in time without limiting its appeal only to those who came of age in that decade. In his fiction, Brockmeier has shown he's a versatile prose stylist, and he makes the transition to memoir without sacrificing that quality. . . . Lovely." -- Bookreporter "Masterful. . . . This is painful stuff--and important and beautifully written stuff, in Brockmeier's hands--worthy of your time and attention. It's insightful, relayed at a propulsive clip, and captures the complicated inner life of a seventh grader with more unflinching precision than anything you'll read on the subject. This book will help you." -- Biographile "A delicately rendered memoir that bathes the invariably painful past in a kind of gold-glowing tenderness. . . . There are plenty of memoirs that recount extraordinary circumstances and adventures, but I cannot think of one that so magically involves us in an exploration of the commonplace. A Few Seconds of Radiant Filmstrip is a look back--not in vengeance, anger or even gloating--but in wonder at the miraculous..
